Alexandria Carette.

FEIDAY EVINING, JAN. 31, 1902.

Her Marriage Dot. The Emperor Joseph II. was in the habit of walking about incognito. One morning he went into a coffee shop and asked for a cup of chocolate. He was plainly dressed and the waiters, being ignorant of his rank, insolently refused it, saying it was too

Without making any reply h walked out and went into a little coffee house hard by and asked for a cup of chocolate. The landlord an-swered that it should be ready in a

While he waited for it he walked up and down and was conversing on different subjects when the landlord's daughter, a very pretty girl, made her appearance.

The emperor wished her good day and observed to her father that it was high time a flower in full bloom should marry before it faded.

"Ah," replied the honest old man, "If I had but a thousand crowns I could marry her to a fine young man who is very fond of her! But, sir, the chocolate is ready."

The emperor called for a pen, ink and paper. The girl ran to fetch them, when he gave her an order on his banker for the thousand crowns.

A Unique Bequest.

Among the experiences that helped a now prominent attorney to emerge from the condition of a briefless barrister he tells the following: One day a miserly old fellow came to him and asked that the young attorney draw up "How much cash have you?" was the first interrogation.

"Waal, I dunno," responded the client; "somewheres nigh on to $30,000, I

"How do you wish it divided?"
"I want my old woman to have $15,- 000, and you can say that I give and bequeath $5,000 to each of my three children," said the old man, unloading himself of the legal phrase with much gravity and deliberation.

"What else do you wish to say?"

"Say that to each of my several nieces and nephews I also give the sum of $5,000." "Hold on, sir; this is a work of supererogation. You have already disposed of all your money. How are they to be given the sums you speci-"Gol darn 'em, let 'em work for it, as I did!" came the answer .- San Francisco Wave.

• Under a Mistake.

The stranger stepped up to the hotel register and wrote his name thus: "Gabriel Plunkett, Squibnocket, Mass."

The stranger immediately behind him then stepped up, looked at the name, smiled somewhat incredulously and made this entry himself:

"Israel Snodgrass, Snohomish, Wash." Then the two men glared at each oth-

"Think I'm kiddin', do you?" "Trying to make fun of me, are you?" Bang!

"For heaven's sake, gentlemen," agonizingly exclaimed the botel clerk, "stop! You are under a misapprehen-I know both of you and know those to be your real names and the real names of the towns you are from!"

By strenuous efforts he succeeded in separating them, and a few moments later they were apologizing profasely and insisting with much vehemence on treating each other.-Chicago Tribune.

If you look at a human hair under the microscope, you will find that its surface is formed of successive over-lapping scales. The bristles of the hog bear much resemblance to the human hair, though their diameter is greater and the tilelike scales are much finer. Sheep's hair has much coarser scales, It is owing to the existence of these scales that a schoolboy is able by a peculiar process to tell which is the tip and which the other end of a hair rolling it between his finger and thumb. Thus manipulated, the hair always travels in the direction of the base because the edges of the scales prevent It from going the other way.

Canada's Banking Business

The banking business in Canada is on a different plan from that in this country. The headquarters of most of the banks throughout the Dominion is in Ontario, either at Hamilton, Kingston or Toronto. Each bank has its central office, generally in one of the cities named, and as many branches as it cares to maintain in different parts of Canada, some of these branches being as far distant as Dawson.

Time's Changes.

"Diogenes was a great man," said the contemplative person, "and yet he had no use for money. He was content to confine his possessions to a sin-

"Well," answered Senator Sorghum, "a tub might have been all right in those days, but what a man wants now is a bar'l."-Washington Star.

There Were No More Complaints. A certain Benedict was in the habit of troubling his father-in-law with complaints about his wife's behavior. "Really, this is too bad," cried the irascible old gentleman one day, on hearing of some of his daughter's de-linquencies. "If I hear any more complaints I will disinherit her."-London

Dyspepsia Cure

You need all kinds of food to maintain the body. Curtail this variety and some organ is underfed. It is for this reason that a diet is injurious. If you cannot digest good food your stomach is out of order and needs rest. You cannot go without food for that would mean starvation. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest what you eat without the stomach's aid. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest what you eat without interrupting digestion. Take it and you can rest your stomach without interrupting digestion. It is nature's own remedy. Never fails. Anderson Riggs, Sunny Lane, Tex., says: "I was troubled with indigestion ten years and tried many things and spent much money until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I am now feeling better than in five years and more like a boy than in twenty."

One Dollar A Year, But at any price THE BEST. New York Tribune Publica-tions.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE comes pretty near being an ideal rowspaper. It is clean without being duil, enterprising without bing rossational, and as fair and securate as human forethought and care can make it. THE TRIBUNE has positive convictions of its own on all the grest questions of the day, but it is broad enough and liberal enough to give all reasonal opportunity to "hear the other adds."

Every occurrence or development of sufficient importance to engage the attention of self respecting, intelligent people is sure to find adequate treatment in THE TRIBUNE.

what is true of The Daily Tribune applies with force, though in modified form, to the other publications issued from The Tribune effice. THE TRIBUNE WEEKLY REVIEW, issued every Saturday, ea ables to keep in touch with the best thought of the pation, instead will as those at the editor.

persons living in the small towns or villages to kesp in touch with the best thought of the nation, just as well as those at the educational centrer. It records and reviews all the essential happenings of the week—the things that count in making up the ledger of progress. For sending to friends absent you cannot find anything tetter.

THE TEISUNE FARM®R is, as its name implies, devoted to the interests of farmers and their families. It is meant to be their friend, advisor and helper in the follost meaning of the words, bringing to them all the available facts and information calculated to aid them. And special care is taken to provide interesting reading matter for the women and young folks. $1 a year.

THE TEILWEEKLY TRIBUNE is, if the phrase may be permitted, the "beef tea" of THR DAILY TAIBUNE. In the three issues of each week it summarizes THE DAILY TRIBUNE, while giving in their entirety many of the very best features and illustrations. For those who have neither the time nor the means to indulge in a metropolitan daily newspaper, and yet want to get all the news of the world treated from a national point of view, THE TRI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is just the paper. Price $1.50 a year. TRIBUNE is just the paper. Price $1.50 a

FOR YOUNG FOLKS.

Are there any boys or girls in your home? If so, do you want them to grow up familiar with the best literature and art, and with all their best impulses quickened? There is a way to do it, at an expense of less than one cent a day—a way to have in your home the greatest educational influence of our time.

"St. Nicholas for Young Folks" is the medium—a magazine absolutely unsqualled in the lifterature of the world. It is recommended by educators everywhere—it contains only the very test and most helpful and entortaining literature, and it is illustrated by the greatest of American illustrators, some new features are to be introduced into some row features are to be introduced into this famous periodical—one is the printing of iong stories complete in a single number—no serials. A splendid group of stories by the best living writers for young folks has been gathered for this purpose.

"NATURE STUDY"
is now a great feature of St. Nicholas. The young readers ask questions and they are answered in a department called "Nature and Science." Private schools take the magnize for this alone. The "st. Nicholas League" is an organization of St. Nicholas readers wherein prizes are offered for the best pictures, stories, poems, etc.
